COURSE DESCRIPTION

Enhancing operative and strategic stakeholder engagement is important especially in international development cooperation and multi-stakeholder settings. Going beyond classical change management towards Transformative Collaboration is key to achieve that.

The CLI Project Teams Transformative Collaboration course is focusing on the self-, system-, and process-levels for facilitating change and transformative collaboration, and offers an applicable understanding of the © Collective Leadership Compass and the © Dialogic Change Model that can be used for present and future challenges

YOUR KEY TAKE-AWAYS

- ✓ Understand the importance of collective leadership for creating transformative change
- ✓ Learn about the concept of stakeholder collaboration with the Dialogic Change Model
- ✓ Build commitment among stakeholders for goal setting and preparing key dialogic events
- ✓ Understand success factors for stakeholder collaboration and know how to monitor the quality of transformative collaboration
- ✓ Produce an action plan on promoting stakeholder collaboration for your project case

Tuition fee 2.000 € in-person

ABOUT THE COLLECTIVE LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

Established in 2005, the Collective Leadership Institute is a global non-profit dedicated to enhancing collaboration skills for a sustainable future. With offices in Germany, South Africa, and the United States, we empower individuals and organizations to tackle sustainability challenges through stakeholder collaboration, dialogic change, and collective leadership. Over 6,500 alumni across 120+ countries and 60 successful projects highlight our impact. In the last four years, we've certified over 300 Collective Leadership Specialists, forming a decentralized network working towards achieving the SDGs by 2030.
